

YOUR BALLOT

IS NEEDED

Tuesday,
November 7,

To swell the vote for the Republican candidates for President and Vice-President

HUGHES
AND FAIRBANKS

Vermont should retain her enviable reputation as a staunch, dependable, true blue Republican State. To do this, every voter should go to the polls.

The country will soon pass through a readjusting period—a period in which men of capacity, men of integrity, men of loyalty to country will be needed to guide the ship of state to a safe and secure anchorage.

Hughes, as president, is the man to do this!

Then, too, your vote is needed to honor the candidates on the State ticket with a majority that will remind us of the records that have been made when the Republican majority in Vermont in a national election approached 40,000. Elections giving a majority vote approaching 40,000 are the elections we love to recall.

Let us add one more just as gratifying to the list.

Honor the national ticket by failing not to vote for Hughes and Fairbanks.

Honor the Senatorial Ticket by voting for Hon. Carroll S. Page.

Honor the Congressional Ticket by voting for Hon. Frank L. Greene and Hon. Porter H. Dale.

Honor the Republican State Ticket by voting for Graham, Hulburd, Bailey, Scott, Gates and Barber.

Now one of those old-time hurrah boys majorities, please.

THE REPUBLICAN STATE COMMITTEE
Montpelier, Oct. 30, 1916

Reasons Why Hughes Should Be Elected

BECAUSE he stands for Protection, Prosperity, Preparedness and Patriotism.

BECAUSE he will not permit partisanship to triumph over Patriotism.

BECAUSE his speech of acceptance expresses his desire to co-operate with labor for its advantage, not to exploit it for his own.

BECAUSE he will command the respect of Europe and Asia and win the friendship of Latin-America.

BECAUSE he will never by proclamation deny the right of Americans to pursue their business in other lands under the protection of the American flag.

BECAUSE he will not repudiate the American flag in any land.

BECAUSE he will not put action into words, but words into action.

BECAUSE, as Theodore Roosevelt well says, he has high sentiments of justice and dignity, is upright and straightforward, is an incontestable master of judicial matters, and always translates his words into deeds.

BECAUSE he is a strong, sure, courageous man, with a clear-cut program before him and with the courage, intelligence and determination to carry it out and bring to our country self-respecting peace and world-wide respect.

BECAUSE as Governor of New York he has already proved that he dared to do the right thing, and is prepared to further do and dare when called into a wider field.

BECAUSE he is not a dreamer and not a quitter.

BECAUSE he is a firm friend of preparedness for the United States and not for preparedness through political expediency.

BECAUSE he will not burden us with war taxes in time of peace.

BECAUSE we need a tariff not founded upon free trade, nor for "revenue only," but to protect American labor and American industry from the deadly competition of the foreigner.

BECAUSE he is a red-blooded American. His policy will be "America first, America efficient."

BECAUSE he can be depended upon to keep platform pledges.

BECAUSE he will protect this country against being flooded with the cheap manufactures of Europe after the war.

BECAUSE he is the chosen head of a party which has long fathered all great constructive legislation which experience has proved to be wise and which has invariably been opposed by the Democratic party.

BECAUSE a business man is going to be especially needed in the next few years. In consequence of the European war a tremendous readjustment of the world's business is ahead. The United States must be economically prepared. It must not, as now, be left defenseless. It must not have a President with an untrained business mind, ever changing. Mr. Hughes made a remarkable record as a business Governor of New York. He has extraordinary ability to see all sides of a question. Not from him, as from Wilson, will be heard any declaration that he will hang business men "high as Haman" if they do not agree with him.

BECAUSE he is a man of forward vision, of practicability and firmness, not a mere rhetorician and theorist.

BECAUSE he stands for the protection of American lives and property abroad as well as at home.

BECAUSE through him the whole nation will be in the Government. It will not be ruled by one section, nor by one man.

BECAUSE he is for an effective, not an unsound and sham system of rural credits to help the farmer and for a wise conservation of natural resources.

BECAUSE he is for a Federal workingmen's compensation law suitable for the employees of the Government and those employees engaged in interstate commerce and subject to the hazard of injury.

BECAUSE he favors investigating before legislating.

Reasons Why Wilson Should Be Defeated

BECAUSE, to cite Representative Fitzgerald, Democratic Chairman of the Appropriations Committee of the House, during his administration the Democratic Congress has been the most extravagant that has ever met in the capital.

BECAUSE he insists on his shipping bill—an indefensible piece of folly which would destroy such merchant marine as we now have.

BECAUSE, although he says "he kept us out of war," the story of Mexico, San Domingo and Hayti refutes him.

BECAUSE he runs anti-climaxes. He marches in only to march out again.

BECAUSE he signed the seamen's bill, which practically has wiped out shipping on the Pacific Coast.

BECAUSE he attempted to scuttle from the Philippines and was defeated only by twenty patriotic Democrats who voted with the Republicans of the House.

BECAUSE he appointed as Secretary of State William J. Bryan after denouncing him as a pest who should be "knocked into a cocked hat."

BECAUSE he made possible Villa, murderer of men and despoiler of women, and Carranza, the fatuous and futile "First Chief."

BECAUSE Wilson's text book statesmanship and grape-juice diplomacy have made the United States an international laughing stock.

BECAUSE he appointed "deserving Democrats" to the diplomatic corps, displacing experienced men at a time when it was essential to the foreign trade and honor of the United States to retain competent, experienced men.

BECAUSE he is incompetent to lead, and veers like a weather vane whenever a zephyr of public opinion seems to blow against him.

BECAUSE his "one-track mind" has too many turn-tables.

BECAUSE he lifted the embargo of arms so that the Mexican desperadoes have used American ammunition to murder American soldiers and civilians.

BECAUSE the promised "pitiless publicity" has been replaced by private, special, secret negotiations by personal agents and representatives appointed by President Wilson without "the advice and consent of the Senate."

BECAUSE he reverses himself so rapidly that the entire country is seasick from the motion.

BECAUSE he is for free trade, direct taxes and an empty treasury—the same old Democratic trinity.

BECAUSE if the Payne-Aldrich law had been in operation in the last nine months of 1915 we would have collected $91,656,161 more than we did under the Underwood law. It would have met the treasury deficits and have avoided war taxes. The foreigner selling in our market got the entire benefit of the $91,656,161.

BECAUSE during the first ten months of the Wilson-Underwood law there were more unemployed being fed by charity than during any ten months in our history, excepting under the Wilson-Gorman act.

BECAUSE of his inconsistency on the immigration bill. In his "History of the American People," vol. 5, p. 213, he wrote: "The Chinese were more to be desired as workmen, if not as citizens, than most of the coarse crew that came crowding in every year at the Eastern ports."

BECAUSE he has not reduced, as he promised, the high cost of living, but has actually made it higher.

BECAUSE he was pledged to a single term by the Baltimore convention, but before the type was cold he was building up his fences for another.

BECAUSE, although posing as an advocate of civil service, every act of his as President in connection with civil service has been adverse to its principles, obstructive and destructive of its bona-fide practice.

BULBS FOR WINTER.

How to Have Bloomers For the Holiday Season.

For those who like to have blooming bulbs in the house during the late fall and winter months there is a simple method that requires little time and no skill. Paper white narcissuses, Dutch-Roman hyacinths and daffodils are most easily grown, although tulips, crocuses and other bulbs that are capable of being forced can be grown without difficulty.

Use shallow six or eight inch pots and any loose, sandy soil that you can get. Do the planting any time before frosts. If you do it later than that the results are not likely to be so satisfactory. Fill the pots partly full of soil and place the bulbs so that there shall be some space between them; then cover them with soil to the depth of perhaps an inch, water them freely, bury the pots in the ground outside and cover them with soil to the depth of three inches. Mark the spot so that you will know where each variety of bulbs is buried. When the top of the ground begins to freeze cover the buried bulbs with leaves to keep them from freezing. The buried bulbs will at once begin to grow and will need no attention until they are ready to bring into the house.

Paper white narcissuses develop most rapidly, but should be allowed to remain buried for at least five weeks. When dug up they should be watered and left in the cellar or some other dark, cool place for a few days before they are brought into the full light. If placed in a cool, sunshiny window and watered freely they will bloom by Christmas. Other pots of narcissus may be brought in at intervals of a few days to replace those that have finished blooming.

Dutch-Roman hyacinths will be ready to bring in by the middle of December and other kinds of hyacinths later. Daffodils, crocuses and tulips should remain in the ground until about the first of February and should be brought in at intervals until the first of March.

In that way, with little trouble and experience, one can have bulbs in bloom from November to April. There need be no fear of failure if, after the bulbs have been brought into the house, they get plenty of sunshine and plenty of water.

Necessities For Comfort.

Having given to a living room that audible thing called "atmosphere," which depends so largely on the right choice of color scheme, the rest of its furnishings is chiefly a question of comfortable tables and chairs. For the first are quite as necessary to our comfort as the last. Indeed, half the comfort of a so called "easy" chair depends upon having right at hand a big or little table to relieve you of everything from a book or workbag to a coffee cup or a cigarette. After these simple essentials add that other of comfortable lights, perhaps the hardest essential of all, and your living room, whether of high or low degree, is pretty sure to be a success. Finally, remember that as many living rooms are spoiled because of overcrowding with nonessentials as for lack of the few necessities.

Tips For Mothers.

Intelligent motherhood conserves the nation's best crop.
Heavy eating, like heavy drinking, shortens life.
Many a severe cold ends in tuberculosis.
Sedentary habits shorten life.
Neglected adenoids and defective teeth in childhood menace adult health.

Democratic Prosperity In 1914

Below is a sample of the sort of news that was appearing in the papers during the months when Mr. Wilson and his party were trying to produce prosperity without the assistance of munitions contracts. The date is January 1, 1914.

MARCHING IDLE ARMY
CRIED FOR FOOD UPON
STROKE OF NEW YEAR

Five Hundred Men Paraded the Streets of Chicago.

"You Are Drunk and We Are Hungry," They Shouted.

Broke Windows and Punctured Tires of Automobiles.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH.)

CHICAGO, January 1.—Entering restaurants and demanding food, breaking windows, and puncturing automobile tires, a crowd of nearly 500 unemployed men early this morning marched through Chicago's business district. They furnished a strange contrast to New Year revelers who were leaving the cafes and restaurants.

The men marched in State street, four abreast carrying a banner which read: "We demand work, not charity." The army halted street cars and cried to passengers, that they wanted work. At Van Buren street the police halted the marchers, but they soon reformed their line farther down the street.

"Hey you bums, what's up?" shouted a pedestrian from the curb. "You are drunk and we are hungry," replied one of the leaders. The band finally broke up into small groups.
